Refusing to ignore people in crisis

If you like talking to people, have a flair for design or can recognise hidden treasure, then there's a role for you in our brand new Red Cross shop.

As a volunteer you could:

- welcome and serve customers
- sort, size and price donations
- take payment at the till
- help design and create displays
- help the shop to run smoothly.

You can:

- meet new people
- get 20 per cent discount in store
- develop skills to improve your CV.

We will:

- aim to find you a suitable role
- train you
- reimburse your travel expenses.
